The Junior League of Northern Virginia Announces City of Alexandria Vice-Mayor as Keynote Speaker at Junior League Virginia Summit

MCLEAN, VA (October 15, 2019) - The Junior League of Northern Virginia (JLNV) announces City of Alexandria Vice Mayor Elizabeth Bennett-Parker will be the keynote speaker during the Junior League Virginia Summit on November 2, 2019. The Summit will take place at the Sheraton Pentagon City Hotel in Arlington, VA.

The Junior League Virginia Summit in its fourth year, brings together members from Junior Leagues across Virginia and surrounding areas for enlightening and empowering discussions on leadership. This year's theme is Transformational Leadership: Inspire & Motivate!

Vice Mayor Bennett-Parker will speak to Junior League members about her leadership journey and how she used the leadership skills gained as a business owner to become a successful elected leader. This one-day event will also include sessions on developing your personal strategic vision, maximizing the membership experience, leading multiple generations, and how to have successful fundraising events.

This event is open to all Junior League members. For more information or to register, visit www.jlnv.org or contact valeaguessummit@jlnv.org.

###

Founded in 1958, the Junior League of Northern Virginia is committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. The Junior League of Northern Virginia is a volunteer organization for women interested in making an impact in their community.

More than 400 women in the Northern Virginia area are members of the JLNV. The women share a common desire to drive positive change in the community. The JLNV was instrumental in the establishment of the Children's Science Center and has community partnerships with Bridges to Independence, Arcadia Farm, Arlington Food Assistance Center and Lorton Community Action Center, among others.
